MARY AND THE CROSS

TRADITIONAL BYZANTINE CHANT IN GREEK AND ENGLISH

The image of the Virgin Mary at the Cross has inspired sacred poetry for centuries, here in Greek and English sung to intensely moving traditional Byzantine chants. Experience how Mary's weeping before Her crucified Son reflects our common human condition, facing adversity and death with hope for resurrection and renewal.

HYMNS OF KASSIANË

MEDIEVAL BYZANTINE CHANT

Discover the ancient music of ninth-century nun, poet, and hymnographer Kassianë, a.k.a. Kassía. Hear an ensemble of female and male psaltēs (cantors) sing rarely heard music by Byzantium's most formidable and prolific female composer. New discoveries, researched and led by Cappella Romana music director and founder Alexander Lingas, complement her famous Hymn of Kassianë from Orthodox Holy Week and When Augustus reigned from Christmastide. Bold in her life, and fervent in her faith, Kassía's voice is unlike any other, on full display in this can't-miss program.

FROM CONSTANTINOPLE TO CALIFORNIA

SACRED GREEK CHORAL WORKS

Follow a 1000-year journey of Byzantine chant, from medieval Constantinople to the Greek communities of California. Infused with 19th-century Italian, Russian, and Viennese choral traditions, the musical seeds carried by Greek immigrants to the New World blossomed in the next generation—Frank Desby, Theodore Bogdanos, Peter Michaelides, and Tikey Zes—with soaring Renaissance style and Hollywood flair.
